Recording Guidelines

It is important that the recording provides an accurate representation of your performing capabilities.

The following guidelines will assist with the production of your recording:

- As far as possible, the video recording should be made in a suitable acoustic environment.
- Where possible, a studio-quality condenser microphone should be used, placed around 1.5 metres in front of the instrument and 2 metres off the ground.
- All the solo repertoire and orchestral excerpts should be recorded in one take (one uncut video file).
- No editing or post production should be carried out.
- Each file should be no larger than 20GB.
- Please indicate time stamp of the start of each work on a separate document for each video file. The document should be in either a Word Document or PDF format (e.g. BEETHOVEN Symphony No.9 – 00:00, BRAHMS Symphony No.4 – 00:55, MAHLER Symphony No.5 – 02:05).
- Please use common digital formats like AVI, M4V, MP4, MOV, MPG, or WMV.

Please take time to watch and listen to your finished recording file to make sure it is playable before sending it to us.

The recording must be uploaded through the online form listed on page 1 of this document.

Any recordings not submitted according to these guidelines may be disqualified.
